1. Introduction

This is an employment agreement between JUXT LTD. (the employer) and Bret Calvey (the employee) dated 2024-10-02.

2. Date of employment

Your employment commences on 2024-10-21.

3. Probationary period

The first 6 months of your employment are probationary.

Your employment may be terminated with one week's notice, given in writing, during your probation. Your performance and suitability will be reviewed and the business reserves the right to extend your probation if necessary.

4. Notice period

One week during the first six months of probation. One calendar month thereafter. Notice must be given in writing.

The business reserves the right to pay salary in lieu of notice. Nothing in these terms and conditions of employment shall prevent the business from terminating your employment without notice or salary in lieu of notice in appropriate circumstances.

5. Position and duties

Your position is that of Software Engineer. The role is offered subject to satisfactory reference/background checks (including credit checks) and may be terminated with one week's notice, given in writing, should these be found to be unsatisfactory.

6. Place of work

Your normal place of work will be remote with travel to site as required.

Travel expenses to locations other than the place of work will be reimbursed. Travel should be agreed and authorized in advance by the CEO.

7. Salary

£140,000 per annum. This will be paid by monthly instalments in arrears into a current bank account maintained in the UK. Pro-rata is calculated against 40 hours per week for full-time work.

All remuneration is paid net of tax and employees' National Insurance as required.

8. Hours of work

Your normal hours of work are 40 hours per week, working 8 hours Monday to Friday.

The company and the employee reserve the right to put /ask to be put respectively on unpaid leave, upon agreement and due notice to JUXT directors.

9. Paid holiday

25 days per annum, plus bank and public holidays. For part-time employees, holidays will accrue in proportion (pro-rata).

Entitlement to leave accrues from the first day of employment at a rate of one-twelfth per month, rounded up to the nearest half day.

10. Sick pay

You must notify the company as early as possible on the first working day of absence of the reason you are unable to work. When you return to work after absence lasting seven days (including Saturday and Sunday) or less you must complete a self-certification form. When your absence is for more then seven days (including Saturday and Sunday) you must provide a medical certificate signed by a doctor. You must keep the company fully informed at all times of the reason for your absence, and the date you expect to return.

All employees are entitled to be paid at their full rate of pay for 10 days absence due to sickness in any calendar year.

11. Pension

All JUXT employees are auto-enrolled into the company pension scheme after 3 months of employment. Should you wish to join the scheme sooner, please contact the People team. Further details can be provided on request.
